SPEECH BY GOV. HENDRICKS.

Review of Grant's Administration—Denunciation of Corruption in Public Service.

SHELBYVILLE, (Ind.,) Sept. 2.—The Democratic meeting here to-day was probably the largest held in this State during this campaign. There were from 10,000 to 12,000 persons present. Governor Hendricks was received with great enthusiasm and manifestations of welcome to his native county. On being introduced the Governor spoke as follows:

My Fellow Citizens:—I had not expected to address you in the present political contest, but have yielded to the urgent request of friends, and will make this and a few other addresses to the people. In his recent speech, Governor Morton said, "In such a campaign, with slander as the chief weapon, Republicans must be excused if they speak plainly of the political character, history and purpose of their antagonists." At the close of that speech there remained no question that the campaign, so far as he could give it character, was correctly described as one of slander. No man of intelligence and observation has failed to see that misrepresentation of the motives of the Democrats is the purpose and policy of the press and members of the Republican party. They charge conduct, attribute motives and refute sentiments, and opinions wholly unknown to the parties attacked. Language is attributed which was never uttered, or so mutilated and garbled as to impart a meaning never intended. A cause must indeed be desperate when its vindication requires resort to means so despicable and wicked. I cannot resort to like means and the use of such weapons. I make you, my old neighbors, who have known me from youth up, witness this day that because of my respect for you, both Democrats and Republicans, I cannot reply as we are attacked; and why should I? Are we not in the very midst of the memories of the times when the heroes and patriots of the Revolution established the Union and declared the Constitution? Are we not in the midst of great responsibilities that rest somewhat upon every man's shoulders? When corruption in every department of the public service threatens the stability of our institutions may we smile truth in the face and woo falsehood to our embrace? When the paralysis of hard times is felt everywhere, and all men are looking into the future with extreme anxiety, may we deny our obligations to society and become blind followers of party? What is your duty and mine in regard to the South?

I BUT REPEAT MY LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE

When I say that all people must be made to feel and know that once more there is established a purpose and policy under which all citizens, of every condition, race and color, will be secure in the enjoyment of whatever rights the Constitution and laws declare or recognize, and that he is a dangerous enemy of his country who would arouse or foster sectional antagonisms. If it be indeed true that for full ten years the Republican party has been enacting laws, has been expending great sums of money, and using the army to establish, control and maintain peace throughout the South, and yet that strife and bloodshed prevail in some localities, failure is stamped upon their policy. In but two States is there death and bloodshed between the races. In these States alone, Louisiana and South Carolina, is the Republican party dominant. In every other State of the South the people have recovered and restored the American right and power of self-government, and the negro vote has ceased to be the tool of the party. Peace and harmony prevail and prosperity is rapidly returning to all. Do you recollect that less than four years ago Clayton and his plundering associates maintained a horrid government in Arkansas by bands of armed men, and that there was no safety nor peace to the black man or the white man? Under a kind of Providence, the people obtained the opportunity to hold an election. They revised their Constitution and elected good men to office, and since then the mild sway and authority of law has been over all, respected by all, and the races have dwelt in harmony. One year ago the Democrats carried the elections in Mississippi. Both branches of the Legislature were Democratic. The laws since enacted have been so wise and just toward both races that not even a complaint has been made. The Governor and subordinate officers abandoned their positions to avoid impeachment upon grave charges. Their pernicious influence being removed, and the people no longer distracted and plundered, the black man and the white man have since then been friends, and now strive together for the restoration of their State. The same story tells the history of North Carolina, and Texas, and Alabama. Why not restore to Louisiana and South Carolina the blessings of good government, that the blacks and whites alike together may dwell under the mild influence of peace and harmony. As wise men and patriotic citizens I pray you to judge whether it be right, expedient or humane to continue men in power who make political gain out of violence and bloodshed? Will you follow the party banner stained with human blood and the political battle-cry of "a bloody shirt, and money?" Is it not wiser and better to trust a party whose fortunes are identified with the supremacy of law and of the triumph of peace? Mr. Hendricks here congratulated the country on

THE REUNION OF THE METHODIST CHURCH, NORTH AND SOUTH,

Which he felt assured would rejoice every good man in the whole country. Passing to the question of reform, he asked whether reform was noticed in the character of officers and amount of expenses, and said, I think I know your judgment and feel the response of your hearts when you say that corruption pervades the public service, that the great army of officers eats out your substance, and that waste and extravagance in expenditures destroy your resources. Governor Morgan and his followers denounce your complaints as bosh and demagoguery, but they must excuse you from heeding their denunciations. They have been actors in these things, and their conduct and that of their political confederates is passing under the judgment of the people. Corruption is found everywhere, unchecked by the men retained in power. It is found in every department of service. It is proven in investigations, in reports, in dismissals, in impeachments, in indictments, verdicts and judgments. Must this great host of office-holders become a standing army, fastened permanently upon the industries of the people? and shall the national expenditures continue, as in the past, largely to exceed the necessities of an efficient public service? Upon which side do you stand? Are you for reform, or, with others, do you denounce reformers? If your judgment does not condemn the present management and demand a purer, better and cheaper service, how will you, as responsible citizens, give that judgment expression? Your ballots will be the record of your judgment and purposes. Are you content that they shall repeat the past and endorse the present as good enough, and now assume that, intelligently and earnestly, you favor reform, that you sincerely desire improvement in the public service, so that it shall become purer, more efficient and less expensive?

THE PRACTICAL QUESTION OF THESE TIMES IS,

How can these results be obtained, and how can each man contribute to their attainment? Experience has taught that there is but one remedy, and that is a change of administration. You may hold mass meetings and conventions, and declare your wishes in resolutions, but your complaints will go to the winds if you do not give them force by the ballot, changing men and politics. What other reliance have you? Is it in the character and promises of their candidate for President? Four years ago last 16th of April Gen. Grant approved a system of regulations of Civil Service Reform. He gave assurances the most solemn that political assessments had been forbidden within the various departments; that honesty and efficiency, not political activity, would determine the tenure of office. Many of you trusted him, and expressed your confidence by voting for Gen. Grant's reëlection. You thought that with the aid of a Board of officers he could and would remedy the growing evils. You trusted him because you admired him as a great successful soldier, and you relied upon his personal integrity and his iron will. Have you been disappointed? Political assessments, the most pernicious influences, have been and are enforced with relentless exaction, collected as taxes and expended as bribes. Manhood, honor and public virtue are all assailed. And has that other assurance been kept to the hope? Have honesty and efficiency, and not political activity, determined the tenure of office? Again the answer is found in interrogatories, reports, indictments, verdicts and judgments. Whose fault is it? There seems to have been no reform, but, on the contrary, the

PUBLIC SERVICE HAS BEEN DRIFTING FROM BAD TO WORSE.

It is not fair to charge it altogether upon General Grant. That charge springs from an unworthy motive on the part of the class of Republicans who seek Governor Hayes' election on the ground that he can accomplish reforms which General Grant could not or would not bring about. Upon this subject Governor Morton expressed the following opinion, in his late speech, in which he claimed the breaking away from the party would break it down in a large degree: "Four years ago, in my opening address as a candidate for Governor, I expressed my personal respect for General Grant, in the opinion that the people had less cause to apprehend an evil policy from him than from the malign and powerful influences with which he would be surrounded. You all know the results have more than realized my predictions. Civil Service Reform is now sneered at, and has ceased to be even a pretence. Wasteful expenditures have continued, and official misconduct has become widespread and alarming." Surely the President cannot be relieved of responsibility for so shameful a condition of pulic affairs? But yet the Administration is, in the main, what the party managers have made it. Will it be otherwise if that party elects a successor? Do you find ground for such a hope and expectation in the candidate himself? Do you claim that he is a person of higher personal integrity than General Grant, and that he will more certainly keep his pledges to the people? or do you think he is a man of stronger will to stand by his convictions and his pledges? Grant had four years of civil experience when he pledged himself and his Administration to reform, and even he was not strong enough to achieve success in the midst of the adverse influences which his party and party leaders brought about him.

THE FAILURE HAS BEEN SO DISASTROUS

As to cause leading Republican newspapers to exclaim: "The Republican party has reached the decisive crisis in its history. Within a short time it will either shake itself clear of the rascalities which have disgraced it, or go down to dishonor and defeat." In every State there are thousands of voters whose minds are made up this day, beyond the possibility of change, to redeem the honor of the American Republic by such votes hereafter that neither Grant nor any of his favorites, nor any man who has imprudently called our civil service the best the world ever saw, nor any defender, nor apologist for this most scandalous Administration, shall ever again be able to claim that he has the American people behind him. Democracy may be dangerous, but it is not filthy with bribes and stealings in the party, with party machinery in the hands of well-known managers and leaders. The Democratic House of Representatives has lifted the covering; and the country is astounded and shocked at the spectacle. You may judge of the temper of the party by the manner in which it receives investigations, exposures and proposed reforms. When you see newspapers and leaders convulsed with rage because crime is exposed and criminals brought to punishment, you know full well that a party under such control cannot restore public virtue. Again, you seek retrenchment in public expenditures. Can you reasonably expect it from the party in power? Turn to the history of the past eight months. The Democratic House determined upon retrenchment in every bill appropriating money. They applied the lowest sums possible consistent with an efficient administration, unless offices were abolished, extravagant salaries reduced, and unnecessary work suspended or abandoned, and the result was a reduction of about $40,000,000 as the bills passed in the House. Retrenchment was resisted in the Senate, and the opposition was carried to the extent of the threatening a suppression of the public service. So determined was the Senate that upon navy bills the House was compelled to yield somewhat, and the result was a reduction of only $30,000,000 in the appropriations as they finally passed. A reduction of $30,000,000 at the first session is the reform and economy with which the House returns to the people. Will you stand by the House, or will you sustain the Senate and the Administration? My fellow citizens, upon which side of this well-defined line will you stand? General Harrison made a similar proposition in his Danville speech; he said: "I say to the Democracy, if their investigations shall succeed in the detection of any Republican officer in abuse of his office, we pledge ourselves to correct the abuse, punish the offender, and we mean to redeem the pledge." Why must it be left to the Democrats to detect and expose official abuses? The past does not justify any confidence in pledges when made for party and the Administration. When fraudulent contracts for the collection of revenue at a ruinous per cent. were exposed and the indignation of the people compelled Richardson, Secretary of the Treasury, to resign

WAS THE OFFENDER PUNISHED?

On the contrary, within two weeks he was appointed to a life office, in which he adjudicates claims against the United States, and his appointment was confirmed by the Senate. Governor Hendricks also referred to the case of Clapp and his reinstatement, and continued, "I need not refer to the case of the present Minister to Japan and his connection with the Credit Mobilier before his appointment and confirmation, nor to other cases. It is very plain that the leaders of the party will not allow their party friends to be exposed and punished. I have another inquiry to make of you, the answer to which will influence your votes. Have you reason to confide in and rely upon the pledges made at St. Louis? These pledges were distinctly made. Not so with the Cincinnati platform; there no reform, no retrenchment, was promised. An assurance that the Civil Service should be purified, expenditures reduced, and useless offices abolished, would have been a rebuke and condemnation of the Administration of General Grant. On the contrary, the Cincinnati platform declares the national Administration merits commendation for honorable work in the management of domestic and foreign affairs. But may you trust to the pledges made at St. Louis? Who will be most likely to abolish the thousands of useless offices? In some instances they were created for party favorites, and in others they have been continued after their occasion had ceased. They are now filled and their emoluments enjoyed by men who will contribute money and labor to elect Governor Hayes. Governor Tilden will encounter no political embarrassment in correcting these great evils. Not so with Governor Hayes. This reform requires that thousands of places of profit be made vacant which are now filled by his supporters. The present House is Democratic.

HAS IT NOT PROVED ITSELF TRUE TO EVERY PLEDGE GIVEN?

In its investigations it has gone as thoroughly into the work as was possible for men to do who had been excluded from the records and departments for many years. In reductions of expenditures and the abolition of every useless office, it went as far as the persistent opposition of the Senate would allow. Have you had occasion to be offended with the House? Has its work been in the interest of the people? Was it not for you that useless offices were abolished, $30,000,000 saved and enormous corruption brought to light? If this House had not been Democratic do you not know that Gen. Belknap would still be Secretary of War? Because this House is of and for the people it is denouced by every epithet that a vicious political taste can command. It has been deemed sufficient to say that Belknap was a Democrat until he was made Secretary of War. Does that indeed satisfy you? As a Democrat he remained without a spot upon his character, until in the meridian of his manhood, but as soon as he came under new associations, he fell. Have you been quite content to hear the House described as a Confederate House? It is true there are many members from the South who support the Democratic party. Is that offensive to you? They are chosen by the people in pursuance of the Constitution. Would you have it otherwise? In what respect have Southern Democrats in the House offended you? In voting to reduce the national expenditures thirty million dollars? Dealing fairly with this subject, will you not admit that it was as liberal as it was honorable on their part to vote to support the Centennial Exposition rather than suffer the honor of the country to be tarnished and our pride humiliated by a failure after the Congress of 1871 had committed the country to the enterprise? Was it not liberal and honorable on their part to vote for the equalization of bounties among soldiers of the Federal army? Their own constituents could not share therein, yet they supported the measure. The

HOUSE HAS BEEN DENOUNCED AND DECLARED REVOLUTIONARY,

Because reform measures were put upon appropriation bills. Such legislation upon appropriation bills is not new, nor is it revolutionary; it has prevailed heretofore, and was practiced more than at any other time when both Houses were Republican. The practice is not a good one, as I think, and should not be encouraged; but the position of the present House was peculiar. It had been chosen by the people with express reference to the corruption of evils and the reduction of expenditures. It soon became apparent, in carrying out the wishes of the people, that the House must encounter the determined opposition of the Senate and the Administration. Correction of prevailing evils and reduction of expenditures in many instances required the repeal or amendment of existing laws, and it was found that this could be accomplished only by putting repeals and amendments upon the appropriation bills. The House are commissioned direct from the people, and especially upon questions of revenue and expenditure may be excused in the exercise of some judgement and discretion in respect to the mode of proceding when the will of the people cannot be attain-

JUAN B. CASTRO.....Monterey

FOR CONGRESSMAN:

J. K. LUTTRELL,

OF SONOMA COUNTY.

INFORMATION WANTED of Chas. M. Wilson, formerly of Detroit, Mich., by his relatives. Address "H.," box 1178, San Francisco.

NO HEADWAY.—The troops on the Indian frontier are preparing to go into Winter quarters without further chasing the Indians this season. It is rumored the latter are desirous of making peace.

SOLE PROPRIETOR.—Our old partner H. C. Grover, has become sole proprietor of the Sutter Banner, J. A. Apperson having retired. We hope the change will be beneficial to the present proprietor as well as to the paper.

TWO THOUSAND KILLED.—In a battle between the Turks and Montenegrans on the 6th instant 800 of the former were left dead on the field and 1,000 driven into the river and drowned; the Montenegrans losing 300 in killed and wounded.

DEMOCRATIC CLUB.—The Tilden and Hendricks Reform Club held their regular meeting last Thursday night, when they elected new officers and transacted other business. Several gentlemen made remarks, "for the good of the order," after which the Club adjourned.

DEATH.—Judge R. A. Thompson, father of the editors of the Santa Rosa Democrat, died on the 31st ult., in San Francisco. Deceased was a native of Virginia, which State he represented in Congress several terms. He was well known and highly respected throughout the State.

IMPROVING.—According to the Call's New York commercial letter, "the crops of wheat and rye throughout Europe are far below the average, which, apparently, insures a good demand for all the surplus grain in the United States at good remunerative prices." We trust this will prove correct, and if so our farmers will realize their expectations.

FIGHTING IT OUT.—A gang of colored Republicans attacked a crowd of colored Democrats in Charleston, South Carolina on the 6th instant. The Democratic negroes had to call for the protection of the whites. Doubtless Radical politicians are at the bottom of this affair, hoping to stir up strife and charge it upon Democrats. But the facts are known.

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.—The first of a series of articles giving a brief history of the Republican party, from the pen of Judge Johnson, appears in this issue, and will be continued from time to time. We would suggest that this history should be preserved, for no one knows the history of that party better than the Judge. It will be found very useful for information and reference.

STATE FAIR.—The Fair will commence on Monday next and continue through the week. The Mechanics' Fair, at San Francisco, closes to-day, so that exhibitors can transfer their articles to the State Fair before the opening. There will no doubt be an immense attendance from this county and from the State generally. The railroad company carry exhibitors free and passengers at reduced rates.

HARD TO BEAT.—Hon. J. K. Luttrell is in the field making telling speeches in behalf of the Democracy and reform. In fact, Mr. L. was one of the first to sound the tocsin of reform on this coast. Hence he was elected by a majority of 4,423 more votes than both his opponents last year. In Congress he has been indefatigable in working for his constituents and true to all his pledges. Therefore he will be re-elected by a tremendous majority. Mr. McKenna will find his canvass to be labor in vain.

NEW PATENTS—Through Dewey & Co., Patent agents, San Francisco, we receive the following advance list of U. S. Patents, granted to Pacific Coast inventors, viz: Jacob R. Felter San Barnardino, Cal., meal bins; John C. Ludwig, S. F. dial telegraphs; James N. Randle, Visalia, Cal., assignor to self and David L. Fonseca, S. F., windmills; James Tulloch, Oakland Cal., ore crusher and feeder; Stephen M. Harris, Foster Grove, Ogn., plows; Henry C. Root, S. F., elliptographs; Reason Wiley, Arcata, Cal., fireplace and furnace; Samuel Kellett, S. F., (designs—two cases) center piece; John W. Schaeffer, S. F., (trade mark) cigars.

RADICAL MONOPOLY.—The telegraph seems to be managed in the interest of the Radical party—manipulating everything in the way of news, whenever possible, in the interest of that party. This is instanced in late election news. Arkansas gave a Democratic majority of from 40,000 to 60,000, and the fact is hardly mentioned; while from Maine, which gave but ten or twelve thousand Republican majority, lengthy details have been given every day since the election. Is it any wonder the people are down on monopolies, and upon the Associated Press in particular? It is not worthy the confidence and support of the people.

History of the Republican Party—No 1.

Republican politicians make frequent appeals to the history of their party. It is proper that they should do so. By that history they should be impartially judged, and upon its record should either stand or fall. There always has been and always will be a never ceasing relation between the present and the past. All succeeding events have a natural and logical connection with certain other events which have preceded them. For the political movement which was inaugurated in 1854 the notes of preparation had been sounding for many years. The party which then assumed the deceptive name "Republican" was but the natural outgrowth of the preceeding anti-slavery agitation in the north. In other words the anti-slavery movement has been a unit, of which the Republican party has been nothing more than a component part.

The institution of negro slavery existed in each of the thirteen Colonies before the commencement of the American Revolution. Upon the men who framed the Constitution of the United States, the duty was devolved of adjusting as best they could, and for all time to come, the conflicting interests which existed, or might arise, between different portions of the Union. Of the States to be united, they were aware that some would be free and others slave. They were aware, too, that there would be numerous instances in which runaway slaves would find their way into free States. To remedy the difficulties that might arise from that source, they inserted in Article IV Sec 2 of that Constitution the words following:

"No person held to service or labor in one State, under the laws thereof, escaping into another, shall, in consequence of any law or regulation therein, be discharged from such service or labor, but shall be delivered up on claim of the party to whom such service or labor may be due."

By the adoption of the Constitution, the thirteen colonies became united upon the precise terms and conditions specified in that instrument. One of the conditions was specified in the clause just quoted. All parts of the Constitution were equally binding. It hence followed that the clause just quoted was as obligatory as any other part of that instrument. As a consequence it was the duty, not only of every State, but of every citizen of every State, to aid in its enforcement. From that duty, neither any State nor any citizen of any State could be absolved, without an amendment of the Constitution. It will be seen from the quotation made that each State was to determine for itself whether or not slavery should be established within its borders.

On the 4th day of March, 1789, the Government of the United States went into operation under the Constitution. For some time thereafter no difficulty arose between the North and the South, in regard to the slavery question. But there at length sprang up in the North what were called "anti-slavery" or "Abolition societies." The persons composing them were generally called Abolitionists. The doctrine of these Abolitionists was, generally speaking, to the effect following:

The slave trade was man stealing, and all engaged in it were man-stealers. All those who purchased slaves of man stealers got nothing better than a thief's right. A title thus defective in the beginning, became no better by lapse of time. The act of slave holding was a flagrant violation of the law of God. Every slave-holder was continually sinning, while he held any human being in bondage. It was the duty of all men to cease sinning immediately. It was, therefore, the duty of every slave-holder to immediately emancipate all his slaves. The law of man, when in conflict with the law of God, was to be disregarded. Not only the provision in the Constitution of the United States herein before quoted, but all laws made in pursuance thereof, were in conflict with the law of God. Such States as Kentucky were slave-holding States, and such States as Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, were slave-catching States. It was right to assist every slave who was trying to escape from bondage. The Constitution of the United States authorized Congress to abolish slavery in the District of Columbia, to prohibit it from going into the Territories, and to hinder slaves from being sold from one State into another. Some of them went even further than this went so far as to pronounce that instrument "a compact with death and a league with hell." Animated by a zeal seldom exceeded, they perseveringly put forth their greatest efforts to revolutionize public sentiment. They sought to act upon the public mind through all the channels they could. With a view to that end they employed lectures, sermons, theatricals, songs, schools, colleges, books, newspapers, magazines. Thus, day by day, through a series of years, were they engaged in "educating the Northern mind and firing the Northern heart." The results were such as might reasonably be expected to flow from such influences. The Abolitionists, generally speaking, were intemperate both in words and actions. They denounced the men in the free States who were opposed to them as "Northern doughfaces." They denounced all slaveholders as "kidnappers" or "man-stealers." They concealed fugitive slaves, and, with as much secrecy as possible, had them conveyed from one settlement into another until they effected their escape into Canada. They often resisted slave-owners and United States Marshals who were endeavoring to recapture fugitive slaves, and not unfrequently instigated riots with a view to that end. Year after year, through a series of years, they kept the halls of Congress agitated over Abolition petitions. Many of them favored a dissolution of the Union, in case they could sever their connexion with slavery in no other way. In one instance, at least, they sent a petition to Congress asking for a dissolution of the Union.

As a natural consequence slaves, in numerous instances, learned that there was a party at the North favorable to their emancipation. Such intelligence must have spread rapidly. As a necessary result slaves became more untractable and less serviceable to their owners. The slave-holders had, in no instance, attempted to interfere with the institutions of the free States. Among the slave-holders of the South there was a community of interest in regard to the institution of slavery. When, therefore, that institution was assailed it was natural for them to make common cause in its defense. The labors of the Abolitionists tended constantly to increase and intensify the pro-slavery sentiment of the South and to array the North and South against each other.

In 1848 the vote of the Abolitionists and Democratic free soilers combined was 291,378. The Abolition vote proper was, in 1840, 7,609 for Birney; in 1844, 65,304 for Birney; and in 1852, 157,296 for Hale. The Abolitionists never asked for an amendment to the Constitution which would release the free States and their citizens from the duty of returning fugitive slaves. It is not my purpose, at present, to discuss the theological questions presented by them. Devotion to the Union and loyalty to the Government are virtues in which it will not be pretended they excelled others. On the contrary, one of their poets wrote:

"Tear down that flaunting lie!
Half-mast the starry flag!
Insult no sunny sky
With hate's polluted rag!"

JAMES JOHNSON.

LOST AN ARM.—We learn from the Colusa Sun of the 9th that Dwight Napier of this county, while returning from a hunting trip Honey Lake in company with J. W. Bandy, accidentally shattered his right arm by the premature discharge of a rifle, near Biggs' Station. His friend Bandy took the wounded man to Colusa where Dr. Balton, assisted by Dr. Tooly, amputated the arm. Mr. Napier is 70 years of age but he stood the operation like a hero.

CACHEVILLE BALL.—The social dance given at Cachevill on Thursday night last was the happiest event of the season. The attendance was very good and every thing passed off in a quiet, enjoyable manner. All who attended were highly delighted with the Centennial Ball. The supper, gotten up by our genial landlord U. S. Dewey, was excellent, and contributed much to the conviviality of the occasion.

MORE RAIN.—Showers have occurred here again this week, though light. This has been an unusual season, very pleasant with the exception of a couple of weeks in June, and there has not been a month this year without a little rain—a very unusual occurrence.

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

ORIGINAL AND SELECTED.

The Maine Radicals are as enthusiastic over Blaine as Plymouth Church was over Beecher.

Speaking of war records: When Lincoln called for 72,000 troops Mr. Tilden urged him to call for 500,000 and crush rebellion at once.

Grant is emphatically a military president and can do nothing without troops. The Boston Advertiser, a Radical newspaper, says that the President's order to General Sherman was quite unnecessary at this time, and, like all unnecessary exibitions of power or strategy, calculated to do more harm than good.

If Tilden be an honest man, and the party seeking to elect him are merely after "spoils" how is it that every convicted thief and plunderer is found among his most implacable opponents?

This is going to be a glorious year for Democracy. The Hartford Times wants Connecticut counted for the biggest presidential majority she has given since the war.

Tilden's letter, Bluford Wilson's testimony, Lamar's great speech, Orth's surrender—verily the blows are falling fast and hard on Radicalism.

Grant and Hayes, and all the Radical leaders, are in the same boat, and whatever odium justly attaches to one is deserved by all of them. A Washington dispatch states that the best feeling exists between Hayes and the President.

"Live within your income," said Samuel J. Tilden to the Secretary of the Treasury in 1865; "there is no royal road for a Government more than individual or corporation." Had this advice been heeded, the people would not have been in their impoverished and uncertain condition to-day.

Our Uncle Samuel has reduced the taxes of New York State seventeen per cent. in a single year, and our Cousin Samuel, with the aid of a Democratic House, has in a single session reduced the appropriations for the Federal Government by the handsome sum of $30,944,253.

A gentleman named Coony, and his six sons, living in Muscatine County, Iowa, all of whom served in the army during the war, and voted in 1868 and 1872 for Grant, have declared that they will give their seven votes this year for Tilden and Hendricks. When the peace was signed, these men concluded that the war was over.

The Republicans cannot stand up against the evidence of their mal-administration, robberies, frauds, corruption, prodigality, and excesses during the last fifteen years. They have destroyed prosperity, unsettled confidence, ruined the enterprise and brought distress on the country. With the certainty of defeat at a fair election, they now daringly propose to invoke the aid of force, and to triumph, if possible, by taking troops into doubtful States.

The Anzeiger publishes the name of nearly three hundred German radicals of Chicago, headed by Colonel Jansen, Carl Schuz's brother-in-law, who have come out emphatically for Tilden.

There is about this canvass very much the same look as that which distinguished the canvass that carried Mr. Tilden triumphantly into the Governorship of New York and gave us a reform House of Representatives at Washington. Everything points to the success of Tilden and Hendricks.

At a Democratic meeting in Petaluma a few nights since, at the conclusion of Mr. Harry George's speech Professor Lippitt, a prominent Republican, declared that he could no longer support the Republican party, but should at this election support Tilden, Hendricks and reform with all his strength.

Clapp, the Government Printer, says the Detroit Free Press, who was put in office by Grant because Congress kicked him out for fraud, has come out for Hayes. He would be an awful lonesome thief if he didn't.

Colonel Ingersoll says of Tilden: "There is no more flesh on him than there is on an umbrella." But there is enough to keep the reign of Radicalism off.

Emil Hoechster, of Illinois, announced to stump Indiana for Hayes and Wheeler, has declared for Tilden and Reform.

Dr. Edward Ranson and Gen. W. F. Loftin, Grant presidential electors in 1872, are now canvassing for Tilden and Vance, in North Carolina.

Republican papers call Governor Tilden "Slippery Sam," because he will "slip" into the White House so easily.

The Democrats of Michigan are confident that they will carry that State by a large majority for Tilden and Hendricks. The Germans of that State are against Hayes by a large majority.

II.

That said petitioners are the holders of patents and the certificates of purchase and conveyances vesting the title in them of said lands, and each tract of land hereinbefore described is owned by and belongs to the persons respectively whose names follow the description of said respective tracts to whom such tracts are respectively stated to belong; and that all the lands described in the district described in this petition are susceptible of one mode of reclamation, and that the same are swamp and overflowed lands and each and every part thereof is swamp and overflowed lands; and that all the said lands within the boundaries aforesaid, and each and every part thereof, has been sold by the State of California to private purchasers and is owned by the parties aforesaid; and that your petitioners desire to reclaim said lands, and to that end they desire to form a Swamp Land District for the purpose of reclaiming said lands and maintain the reclamation thereof, for that the said lands are not included within any reclamation district duly organized.

Wherefore your petitioners pray that the honorable Board of Supervisors of said county, the county in which said lands are situated, may make an order approving this petition and forming the land hereinbefore described into a reclamation district with all the powers usually conferred upon such districts, and that such reclamation district may be formed under the provisions of the Political Code.

Registered Letter for L. P. Palm.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.—Hon W. B. C. Brown, State Controller, will address the people of Yolo county in front of the Capital Hotel this (Thursday) evening, upon the political issues of the campaign. Mr. Brown is a forcible and eloquent speaker. All, and especially the ladies, are invited to be present. Seats will be provided. Judge Johnson will also address the assemblage in behalf of the Democratic candidates and reform.

FOR THE FALL TRADE.—Levy and Oser are receiving their heavy fall stock of general merchandise, selected especially for this market and particulary adapted to the wants of ladies and families. A new feature of our establishment is Millinery. We have a first-class milliner in the store who will suit every lady desiring anything in that line. They are determined to be up with the times in all branches of their business.

FALL GOODS.—Nicklesburg & Bro. have just opened an immense stock of new goods embracing an assortment such as has rarely been brought here. This house pride themselves in doing a square, ligimate business, and are keeping first-class goods. Mac's genial smile greets the customers, and besides, he never wearies in showing goods. New advertisement next week.

AFTER GOODS.—Mr. Read, of Read & Forrester, is now at the Bay laying in a full stock of general dry goods. The design of this enterprising firm is to do a general merchandise business, also continuing their lines of clothing, furnishing goods, crockery, etc. The goods are arriving, and the ladies are invited to call and make a personal inspection.

NEW RECLAMATION DISTRICT.—A petition to the Board of Supervisors for the formation of a new reclamation district in this county appears in our columns. Its great length prevents giving our usual amount of reading matter, for which we shall try to make amends hereafter.

STATE CONFERENCE.—The annual Conference of the Seventh-Day Adventists of California will be held in connection with their Camp Meeting at Fairfax, near San Rafael, Marin county, September 20th to 28th. Several persons from Woodland and vicinity will attend.

CAPITOL HOTEL.—Since Mr. Tackney purchased and took possession of this popula hotel it has been getting more and more patronage, until now it is as lively about there as in its palmiest days. Mr. Tackney keeps a first-class house.

MONSTER PEACHES.—County Treasurer Kean has left at our office the finest sample of peaches we have ever seen in California, some of which measure 11 inches in circumference. They were raised on Grant's ranche, Randolph Flat, Nevada county.

CAMP MEETING.—Tomorrow, Friday, Sept. 15, a Methodist camp meeting will commence at the Wolfskill grove, one mile from Winters. It will continue ten days and will, no doubt, be largely attended.

BAPTIST SERVICES.—Rev. J. T. Prior will preach at the Advent Church next Sunday, 17th instant, morning and evening, at the usual hours.

THANKS.—We are indebted to the Woodland Jockey Club for a season ticket to their course during the races now on.

The Races.

The Fall races, under the auspices of the Woodland Jockey Club, were initiated at their new track Tuesday last. A large crowd was in attendance, quite a number of sporting men from different parts of the State being present. The balcony of the hotel was filled with ladies, and all were entertained with exhilerating music by the Ellis Brass Band.

The track was in fair condition, and at two o'clock P. M. the horses for the pacing race, three in five, free for all second-class horses, were called to the stand. There were three entries, viz: Billy Mayo, Fisherman, and Billy Campbell. The heats were well contested, and the spirited betting by the backers of the respective favorites showed that much uncertainty existed as to the final result. The third heat, however, settled the question in favor of Billy Mayo, who won the race in three straight heats. Many fine bursts of speed were made, and the "Old Gray" received a perfect ovation of applause when he came in winner.

RECAPITULATION.

Pacing race, free for all second-class horses; purse, $200; $150 to first, $50 to second.

McMullen enters g. g. Billy Mayo.....	1	1	1
Fisher & Squires enter r. s. Fisherman	2	2	2
Whitmore enters br. s. Billy Campbell.	3	3	ds

Time—2:32½, 2:30, 2:33¼.

SECOND DAY'S RACING.

Trotting race, free for all whose record did not beat three minutes. There were twelve entries, only eleven, however, starting, Echo being withdrawn. This was a very closely contested race, and the betting spirited. The first heat was declared "dead," and four others were trotted before the contest was decided. St. Charles and Hamlet were favorites clear through, St. Charles making the largest showing in the pool box. Hamlet took the second heat and St. Charles the other three. Time—2:51¾, 2:54, 2:49 4-5.

The race was well attended. Some feeling toward the Judges was manifested at one or two of their rulings, but the general verdict was that the Solano horse won the race fairly.

To-day there will be a trotting race, free for all three-year-olds in Yolo and Solano counties. Also, other sports.

The Club deserve a good patronage, as they have been untiring in their efforts to make these races a success.

Our Dixon Letter.

DIXON, Sept. 12th, 1876.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT: Not having been able to write to you for the past two months, on account of sickness, I will now try again to give you a few items concerning this town and neighborhood.

The grain is all harvested and the largest portion of it hauled to the warehouses and stored. As the present prices do not suit the farmers, very few of them have, so far, sold their grain.

The general health of the community is very good, and very few deaths have occurred during the last three months. Last week it was reported that there was a case of smallpox in town, but after a careful examination it was found that the report was untrue.

The new German Lutheran Church was dedicated on the 6th of this month. Pastor Muhlsteph, of San Francisco, officiated on the occasion.

During the last two weeks the people of this place have had a chance to attend no less than three shows and two balls. The ball at Centennial Hall, on the 18th of August, was a very pleasant affair and the one given by Frahm Bros. at Public Hall was also a success in every respect. The presentation of the Harvest Queen, (Miss Annie Hall,) was the main feature of the Ball. A great many Dixonites went to Davisville to attend the dedication ball of the I. O. O. F. of Davisville, in honor of the dedication of their New Hall. They all express themselves well satisfied.

The Tilden and Hendricks men, also the Hayes and Wheeler men, are very active to add more members to their respective Clubs. It is said that the Democratic Club has no less than 220 members, which is certainly a good showing On Wednesday of last week Hon. Barclay Henley, a very able speaker, addressed the Club at the Centennial Hall.

Messrs. Hustler and Story have opened a new Drug store. In connection with it they intend to keep a circulating library, which we have so long needed. As they are both enterprising young men they will no doubt make this business a success.

Mr. R. Prag has sold out his business and intends leaving for another place.

Messrs. Hall, Timm and Little, who went to the Springs with their families, have all returned well pleased with their trip.

R. D. Hopkins of the Tribune has returned and has again entered his sanctum and assumed its duties.

The contract for finishing the new Baptist Church has been let to Mr. London. He intends to have the building ready for use by the 1st of October. The congregation meets at present in Centennial Hall.

Mr. R. F. Coleman has opened a new music store in Johnson's brick block with a large assortment of instruments—Piano's, Organs, etc.

It is supposed that Messrs. Eppinger & Co. will soon begin building a large brick store.

Respectfully, ROMAN.

CHINAMEN ARRESTED.—a large number of Chinese gamblers were surprised and arrested in one of their dens last week just after we went to press. Most of them were released, however, soon after, but several of them are held for trial.

RETURNED.—Ex-Coroner S. L. Monday and wife returned from the East about ten days ago. They had a good time generally, for old folks, and came back improved in health and otherwise by the trip.

J. H. EATON & SON pay the highest price for eggs and poultry. 26

JOHN BREUNER, the big Furniture dealer of 166, 163 and 170 K Street, Sacramento, has just received four car-loads of the newest styles of furniture which he offers at the lowest prices ever given in this State. Grey, hair-cloth parlor sets and elegant carpet lounges are sold at figures that are astonishingly low. See advertisement. 43

HON. JOSEPH FAREWELL, Mayor of Rockland, Me., Isaac M. Bragg, Esq., Bangor, and Messrs. Pope Bros., Machias., Me., lumber merchants, fully endorsed the Sheridan Cavalry Condition Powders, and have given the proprietors liberty to use their names in recommending them.

THE most astonishing cure of chronic diarrhœa we ever heard of is that of Wm. Clark, Frankfort Mills, Waldo Co., Maine; the facts are attested by Ezra Treat, Upton Trest and M. A. Merrill, either of whom might be addressed for particulars. Mr. Clark was cured by "Johnson's Anodyne Liniment."

DO NOT, if you are so unfortunate as to have bruised, sprained, cut or burned yourself, use an astringent lotion or liniment, but bathe the hurt part with a solution of GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP, which is far better.

SEYMOUR'S DEMAND.—In his great campaign speech four years ago, Horatio Seymour said that the people made of the Republican party one demand, to which they would brook no refusal—Show the Books!—the books of your long stewardship of the Federal Government. He foretold that when the books were shown, in spite of every device to prevent it, the way would be plain to better and cheaper administration of the government. Horatio Seymour has not merely commanding ability, burning eloquence and great judgment of present exigencies, but that finer and rarer quality of high statesmanship, that clear prescience of the very soul of an extended era, which almost amounts to prophecy. He never speaks without striking a key-note; and less a mere tactician that a great political strategist, his view includes the results of distant conflicts as well as of the immediate events of the day. Fortunately the prophetic advice of the great New York statesman has been partially followed by his party. Under the power of the House the Administration has been compelled to show the books in part. Doggedly and reluctantly they have been produced—each individual official and the whole power of the Administration resisting step by step each demand. Little has yet been exposed in comparison with the whole great mass of crime and extravagance, but what has been done has already resulted in a saving of $30,000,000, and a wholesome fear of justice among officials which compels honesty and accuracy where loose administration and peculation would otherwise prevail. This year the people again cry "Show the Books;" and, by the election of Tilden and Hendricks, will compel a full and candid showing as the essential forerunner of real Administrative Reform.

FIGHTING JOE HOOKER TO GOV. TILDEN—My Dear Governor: I cannot refrain from offering you my sincere congratulations, on your nomination to the exalted office of the Presidency of the United States. As a quiet observer of the political events of the nation, I know of no one in my day that has afforded so much satisfaction, and sincerely hope and believe that the wisdom shown by the selection at St. Louis will be fully ratified by the great mass of our people in November next. We require reforms in politics, religion and morals, and I am convinced that we will receive them generously at your hands. The whole Government of the nation has been corrupt, desperately corrupt, and the honor and glory of applying the antidote, I am convinced, will belong to you. If the fact of your nomination does not enhance the material values of the nation, I am sure your election will do it. Already I seem to breathe a new atmosphere, as is the case with every well-wisher of his country.

Sincerely yours,
J. HOOKER, Major-General.

Be Wise in Time.

Prompt attention to small ailments is the part of wisdom. Not only does a trifling disorder often culminate in a dangerous disease, but those ailments which many are accustomed to regard as "trifles" are so far from being so, that they harrass the entire system, by sympathy, to a degree which very seriously jeopardizes the general health. Take for example an irregular habit of body, which many persons are accustomed to neglect altogether. Into what deplorable confusion does it throw the entire alimentary region, disordering digestion, diverting the bile from its natural channel into the blood, and attenuating the vital current into a thin, watery, unnutritious liquid. If these are not serious consequences, we should like to know what are. Yet how many entail them upon themselves by neglecting to regulate their bowels when they are out of order.

The best corrective in the case above described, as well as in all others developing indigestive and constipated symptoms, is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a mild but efficient laxative, which never gripes or otherwise distresses the patient, and at the same time that it yields relief from the special difficulty tones and invigorates the entire system. The Bitters are equally efficacious as a diuretic, promoting a healthy secretion and regular micturition of the urine, and soothing irritation of the bladder or the urethra. Intermittent and remittent fevers; nervousness, want of appetite, and local or general debility are likewise promptly remedied by this admirable medicinal stimulant and corrective, as efficacious as it is popular.

The Yolo Democrat.

Thursday, Sept. 14th, 1876.

[Concluded from First Page.]

ed otherwise. Until the present Congress, the Democrats have been in a small minority for many years, and have been unable to control the record by no means as full and complete as if they had controlled the fortune of their measures themselves elswhere. You may not agree to many things that were said, and be dissatisfied that some measures were delayed and others lost in the House. Do you not choose to go forward and complete the work now well begun, rather than to go back to the practice of preceding years? Would you venture to repeat the party rules of the past eight years? Had thirty millions been saved every year during that period may be you would not now be in the contracting folds of hard times. Do you hesitate to trust Governor Tilden in the great work of reform? Alone, he might not accomplish complete success; but he will call around him those who are without embarrassment in his support. His election will be without the help and over the opposition of all "rings" and combinations against the Treasury. For his election he will be indebted to those who sincerely and earnestly desire reform: he will, therefore, have their support in carrying out his policy. Thus surrounded, can you trust him? You know that

IN SUCH A WORK HE IS BOTH ZEALOUS AND CAPABLE.

You know that neither political nor personal friendship can stand in the way of his efforts to purify and cheapen the public service. In the city of New York he overcame and destroyed a most powerful and corrupt combination. As Governor of the State, succeeding General Dix, he introduced notable reforms and the taxes of New York have fallen from sixteen to eight million dollars. No other citizen can bring such evidence of his ability and zest to accomplish what the people now so much desire. That fact gave him the nomination, and a conviction of that fact on the part of the people will elect him President. All the corrupt influences of the country are against him; falsehood and detraction will do their worst night and day, but the people will stand by the champion of their cause. Are you quite sure that these hard times are enevitable? If not, then there are great responsibilities somewhere. Our people are intelegent, industrious and enterprising. We have great and constantly increasing sources of wealth; new minds are awaiting development, and new lands are constantly coming into cultivation. Why then does capital shrink from investment? Why is labor without employment? some answer should be given by those who demand yet longer to control public affairs and to fix our politics. If no answer be given, or if the answer be an insult to their intelligence, the people will wisely resolve upon a change. When the laborer of the North asks why he can get no work he will not be satisfied with the answer that there was bloodshed at Hamburg; that there was a bloody riot at Newark, N. J., or that a man was driven from his house in Mitchell, Indiana, by a band of armed men and wounded. In such a case as ours

THE ONLY REMEDY OF THE PEOPLE IS IN A CHANGE.

It cannot be worse; it may be better in many respects; it may be better in every respect. Retrenchment in public expenditures will surely relieve the industries of the country of a portion of their burdens, and the adoption of a system of economy and wise finance will restore better times. Where may capital look for investment, and labor for employment in this country? Can it be to the leaders whose Administration stands condemned, and under whose measures disaster has come upon all interests? When the change has taken place, and the people shall have placed in power an Administration, pledged to radical reform, pledged to a restoration of the par value of the currency, without artificial contraction; of public economies, by official retrenchment and wise finance; and pledged also to administrative policies and measures for the benefit of all the people and not for the benefit of a class or a party, hope will revive, and confidence be restored, and we will experience the blessing of a returning prosperity.

Governor Hendricks was followed by Hon. Geo. Hoadley, whose speech was the prominent feature of the occasion. Gen. Shields and others are speaking to-night.

Letter from Cacheville.

CACHEVILLE, Sept. 12th, 1876.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT:—Though harvest is over and its usual clamor and rush are heard and seen no more, still business continues lively. Our streets on Sundays seem as quiet as a country graveyard. And this very proper state of things is duly appreciated. Owing to this state of matters it is difficult indeed to obtain any very striking items. Even the dogs seem to be possessed of a disposition of peace and friendliness.

The loud scream of the whistle which perches above the engine house of the mill revives the memory of the past, and awakens us to the fact that that institution is again in operation. Truly it seems to add new life to every feature of things. I trust it will be in constant operation hereafter, as the difficulty of transporting its products to market is overcome by the railroad. Salisbury & Netting are the proprietors.

Messrs. Hall & Pendegast have closed out their mercantile business here and intend to establish another at the "Willows," in Colusa county, much to the regret of our community.

The storage of grain at this point this season has been quite large, and a great deal has been brought to this point for shipping. Black's Station is also receiving a very large amount of grain.

The opening of Third Street last Friday created no little excitement and satisfaction. It is understood that a part of the land heretofore reserved by Judge Hutton is to be sold in town lots.

No political Clubs have yet been organized here.

W. O. Warnock, of the Advocate was in town last week canvassing for his paper. By the way, that paper is poorly represented in this part of the county, and not patronized as it should be.

O. Dutton, an old resident of our town, who has been on a visit to his home in the East and spending a sojourn in Philadelphia, returned last Thursday looking exceedingly well.

Centaur Liniments!

[Letter from a Postmaster.]

ANTIOCH, ILL., Dec. 1, 1874.

"Messrs. J. B. ROSE & CO.:

"My wife has, for a long time, been a terrible sufferer from Rheumatism. She has tried many physicians and many remedies. The only thing which has given her relief is Centaur Liniment. I am rejoiced to say this has cured her. I am doing what I can to extend its sale. * * * W. H. RING.

This is a sample of many thousand testimonials received of wonderful cures effected by the Centaur Liniment. The ingredients of this article are published around each bottle. It contains Witch Hazel, Mentha, Arnica, Rock Oil, Carbolic, and ingredients hitherto little known. It is an indisputable fact that the Centaur Liniment is performing more cures of Swellings, Stiff Joints, Eruptions, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sciatica, Caked Breasts, Lock-jaw, etc., than all other Liniments, Embrocations Extracts, Salves, Ointments, and Plasters now in use.

For Toothache, Earache, Weak Back, Itch and Cutaneous Eruptions, it is admirable. It cures burns and scalds without a scar. Extracts poisons from bites and stings, and heals frost-bites and chilblains, in a short time. No family can afford to be without the Centaur Liniment, white wrapper.

THE CENTAUR LINIMENT, YELLOW WRAPPER, is adapted to the tough skin, muscles and flesh of the animal creation. Its effects upon severe cases of Spavin, Sweeny, Wind Gall, Big Head and Poll Evil, are little less than marvellous.

"In our neighborhood a number of teamsters are using the Centaur Liniment. They pronounce it superior to anything they have ever used. We sell as high as four to five dozen bottles per month to these teamsters."

We have thousands of similar testimonials.

For Wounds, Galls, Scratches, Ring-bone, etc., and for Screw Worm in Sheep it has no rival. Farmers, Livery-men and Stock-raisers have in this Liniment a remedy which is worth a hundred times its cost.

Pitcher's Castoria!

Mothers may have rest and their babies may have health, if they will use Castoria for Wind Colic, Worms, Feverishness, Sore Mouth, Croup or Summer Complaints. It is entirely a vegetable preparation, and contains neither mineral, morphine, nor alcohol. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and neither gags nor gripes.

Dr. E. Dimoch, of Dupont, O., says:

"I am using Castoria in my practice with the most signal benefits and happy result."

This is what everyone says. Most nurses in New York City use the Castoria. It is prepared by Messrs. J. B. ROSE & CO., 46 Dey St., New York, successors to Samuel Pitcher, M.D. jy27-3m1

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

THIS GREAT INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION, DESIGNED TO COMMEMORATE THE ONE HUNDREDTH ANNIVERSARY OF AMERICAN INDEPENDENCE, OPENED MAY 10th, AND WILL CLOSE NOVEMBER 10th, 1876. All the Nations of the world and all the States and Territories of the Union are participating in this wonderful demonstration, bringing together the most comprehensive collection of art treasures, mechanical inventions, scientific discoveries, manufacturing achievements, mineral specimens, and agricultural products ever exhibited. The grounds devoted to the Exhibition are situated on the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and embrace four hundred and fifty acres of Fairmount Park, all highly improved and ornamented, on which are erected the largest buildings ever constructed,—five of these covering an area of fifty acres and costing $5,000,000. The total number of buildings erected for the purposes of the Exhibition is near two hundred. During the thirty days immediately following the opening of the Exhibition a million and a quarter of people visited it.

THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD,

THE GREAT TRUNK LINE

—AND—

Fast Mail Route of the United States,

Is the most direct, convenient and economical way of reaching Philadelphia and this great Exhibition from all sections of the country. Its trains to and from Philadelphia will pass through a GRAND CENTENNIAL DEPOT, which the Company have erected at the Main Entrance to the Exhibition Grounds for the accommodation of passengers who wish to stop at or start from the numerous large hotels contiguous to this station and the Exhibition, a convenience of the greatest value to visitors, and afforded exclusively by the Pennsylvania Railroad, which is THE ONLY LINE RUNNING DIRECT TO THE CENTENNIAL BUILDINGS. Excursion trains will also stop at the Encampment of the Patrons of Husbandry, at Elm Station on this road.

THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD IS THE GRANDEST RAILWAY ORGANIZATION IN THE WORLD. IT CONTROLS SEVEN THOUSAND MILES OF ROADWAY, FORMING CONTINUOUS LINES TO WASHINGTON, OVER WHICH LUXURIOUS DAY AND NIGHT CARS ARE RUN FROM CHICAGO, ST. LOUIS, LOUISVILLE, CINCINNATI, INDIANAPOLIS, COLUMBUS, TOLEDO, CLEVELAND, AND ERIE, WITHOUT CHANGE.

Its main line is laid with double and third tracks of heavy steel rails upon a deep bed of broken stone ballast, and its bridges are all of iron or stone. Its passenger trains are equipped with every known improvement for comfort and safety, and are run at faster speed for greater distances than the trains of any line on the continent. The Company has largely increased its equipment for Centennial travel, and will be prepared to build in its own shops locomotives and passenger cars at short notice sufficient to fully accommodate any extra demand. The unequaled resources at the command of the Company guarantee the most perfect accommodations for its patrons during the Centennial Exhibition.

THE MAGNIFICENT SCENERY for which the Pennsylvania Railroad is so justly celebrated presents to the traveler over its perfect roadway an ever-changing panorama of river, mountain and landscape views unequaled in America.

THE EATING-STATIONS on this line are unsurpassed. Meals will be furnished at suitable hours and ample time allowed for enjoying them.

EXCURSION TICKETS, at reduced rates, will be sold at all principal Railroad Ticket Offices in the West, North-west and South-west.

BE SURE THAT YOUR TICKETS READ VIA THE GREAT PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE TO THE CENTENNIAL.

SOMETHING NEW

At 169, 171 and 177 K Street,

SACRAMENTO CAL.

AITKEN & LUCE

Make the following proposition to those who wish Monuments or Headstones, and who come to the City for the express purpose of selecting.

We will pay the R.R. fare both ways when the distance and amount of purchase compare with the following table:

$50 00	Contract—	30	miles or	less.
$100.00	"	50	"	"
$250.00	"	75	"	"
$500.00	"	150	"	"
$1,000.00	"	300	"	"

Thus giving purchasers the opportunity of making their selections, instead of dealing with inexperienced canvassers.

Cut this out and bring it with you, and after you have made your purchase, present it, and we will give you credit for your R. R. fare both ways.

We wish it distinctly understood that we work any kind of marble desired, and as low as the lowest.
